

Andy Nobes

Biography:

Andy is responsible for the online component of INASP's AuthorAID project, which supports early career researchers in developing countries. He currently manages the AuthorAID website, which provides free resources, discussion forums, and an online mentoring and collaboration platform. He has also been instrumental in the development of the AuthorAID online courses in research writing and proposal writing, which have evolved into Massive Open Online Courses (MOOCs), training over 9,000 researchers from 111 countries in the past three years. Andy has also been involved in training journal editors in Bangladesh, Nepal and Sri Lanka in digital publishing practices, as part of INASP's Journals Online project.

Education:

2006 BSc (Hons) Theology and Religious Studies (First Class), Oxford Brookes University

Positions held:

Jan 2014 – Present	Programme Officer, Research Development & Support, INASP
May 2013 – Dec 2013	Senior Library Marketing Coordinator, Taylor & Francis
May 2011 – May 2013	Senior e-Marketing Coordinator, Journals, Taylor & Francis
Sept 2009 – April 2011	Web Developer and CMS trainer, Rare Form New Media
June 2009 – Aug 2009	English Teacher, Oxford Intensive School of English

Language skills:

on a scale of 1 to 5 (1 - excellent; 5 - basic)

Language	Reading	Speaking	Writing
English	1	1	1